About This Game

Sphera Turris is a timed rotating platformer where you guide a ball past an array of increasingly difficult obstacles to the top of a tower. Precision controls, environmental physics, and challenging levels will have you trying over-and-over to shave a few tenths of a second off your best times. The custom music goes great with the colorful, futuristic graphics. Start comparing speed run times and tips with your friends today!

Highlights include

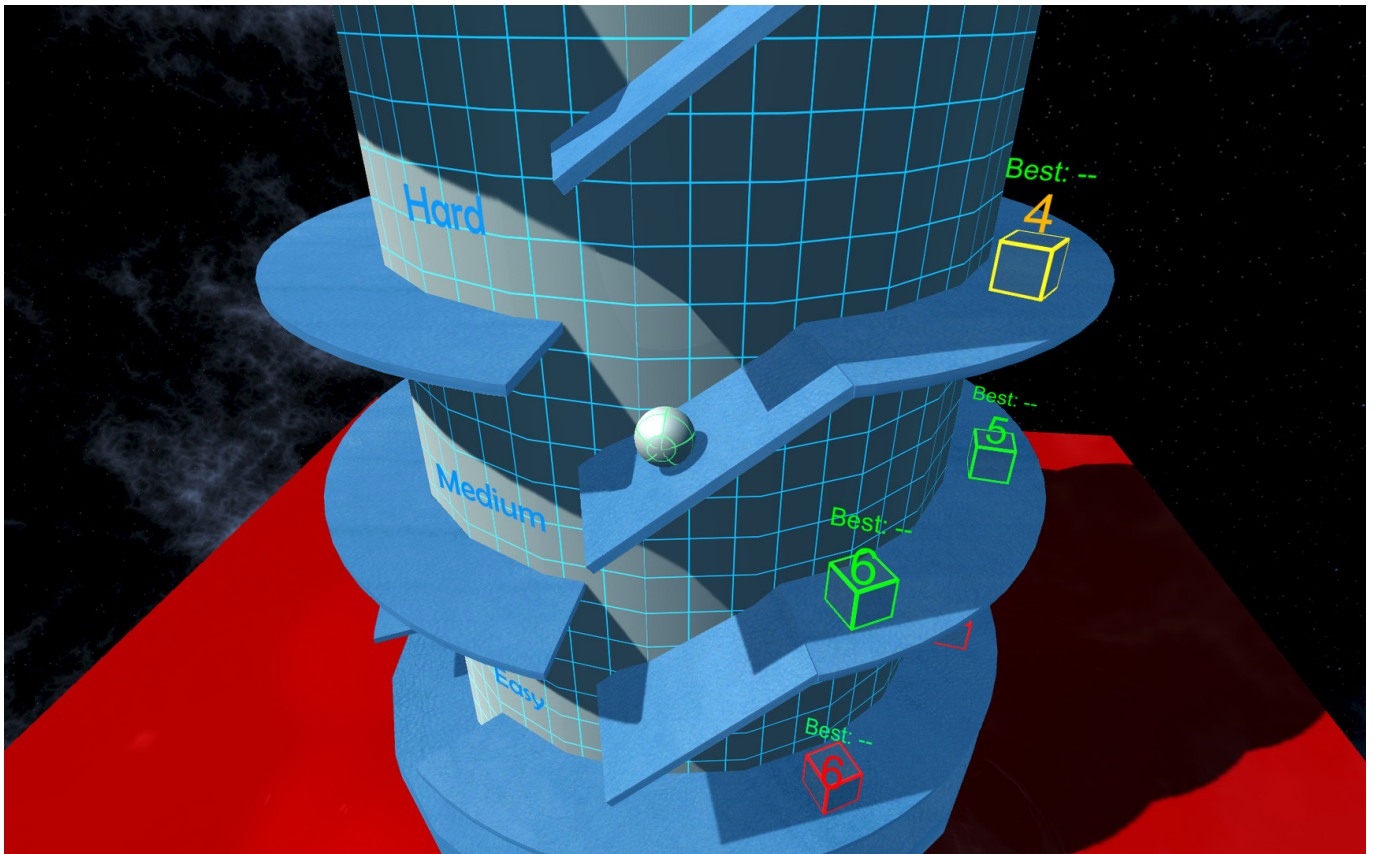

- An array of levels broken into Easy, Medium, and Hard (very hard) sections
- Physics enabled environments
- Personal best times tracked on each level
- View Leaderboards in game - See your ranks globally and against your friends
- Achievements

- Custom music
